Sir,

Some federation of All India Private ITI Associations, Staff and Trainees have sought Clarification whether the attempted, unanswered questions and left the answer blank (not bubbled) in OMR sheet will attract any negative marking in the OMR based Examination.

In this regard, it is clarified that in case, if a trainee is not attempted question and left the answer blank (not bubbled) in OMR sheet then it will not attract any negative marking for left over questions (unanswered).

Yours faithfully
